

Before

Alexander's working day on Friday ended early. For several days he has been impatiently awaiting the release of the online game. And then finally this day has come. Immediately after work, he went to download the game and saw that the parameters of his computer were outdated. Therefore, he will have to enjoy the minimal settings and plugging. Without hesitation, Alexander decides to buy himself a more powerful computer. But he is faced with the problem that the stores have a small selection and there are no complete sets suitable for him. Therefore, he has to order components in different stores and hope that they all fit into the case. After several weeks of waiting, all the components come to him. After another couple of hours, he folds up his dream computer and enjoys the game with his friends.

After

Alexander's working day on Friday ended early. For several days he has been impatiently awaiting the release of the online game. And then finally this day has come. Immediately after work, he went to download the game and saw that the parameters of his computer were outdated. Therefore, he will have to enjoy the minimal settings and plugging. Without hesitation, Alexander decides to buy himself a more powerful computer. He remembered that recently his friends bought a computer and advised "MyBuildPC" an online store. Therefore, without hesitation, he enters the online store and chooses a computer that meets his requirements. After placing an order, he waits for a couple of days and gets the computer of his dreams and enjoys the game with his friends.
